

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
KPAS (Kerrville Performing Arts Society)

KPAS ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP AUDITIONS

KERRVILLE, TX – January 16, 2011. The Kerrville Performing Arts Society (KPAS) is pleased to announce its annual KPAS Performing Arts Scholarship Auditions for 2011. The Mission Statement adopted by the KPAS Board of Directors states that KPAS is to promote and present professional level performing arts, to provide outreach workshops to community schools and organizations, and to offer scholarship aid to area students pursuing higher education in the performing arts areas of instrumental music, vocal music and dance. Since the early 1980's KPAS, a 501(c)(3) organization, has been offering scholarships to students from the Texas hill country that are pursuing a career in the performing arts. The KPAS Education/Scholarship Committee, chaired by Barbara Cordova, has scholarship packets available at this time.

Students interested in applying for the KPAS performing arts scholarship will find information, including all necessary forms, at the KPAS website, www.kpas.org. Students may also request information by leaving a message on the KPAS Telephone Message Line at 830-895-5727. Scholarship information is available from local school music teachers and high school counselors who provide assistance to KPAS in notifying the students of these performing arts scholarships.

The deadline for the scholarship application is February 26th. The scholarship auditions are scheduled for March 5, 2011, and will be adjudicated by local artists. The scholarship winners will be announced following the auditions and the scholarship winners will be recognized at the final KPAS performance of season.

Last season, KPAS awarded scholarships to Dani Stevens, flutist from Kerrville; Richie Miller, percussionist from Kerrville; James Smith, saxophonist from Fredericksburg; and Evana Toll, Double Bassist from Kerrville.

If you have any further questions about the KPAS Scholarship Program, or the KPAS Season Ticket information, please call and leave a message at the KPAS Message Center at 830-896-5727 or visit www.kpas.org.

X X X